

Frontier Human Resources Association

Scholarship Application

Purpose

The purpose of this scholarship is to promote SHRM Certification to Frontier Human Resources Association (FHRA) members. The FHRA board understands the significant time and cost associated with certification. It is our intent to provide a scholarship to assist with the financial burden of SHRM Certification. The funds should be used to prepare or test for the SHRM-CP or SHRM-SCP via preparation class tuition, study guide cost, and/or the cost to take the examination. More information on SHRM Certification can be found online at <https://shrm.org/certification>.

Selection Criteria

The scholarship recipient will be selected at the sole discretion of the FHRA Board Members. Applications are accepted from July 1st through October 1st annually. Full applications should be emailed to frontierhumanresourcesassn@gmail.com with the subject line "scholarship application – your name".

Requirements

1. A fully completed Scholarship Application.
2. A FHRA member in good standing.
3. Current resident of Albany, Goshen, Laramie, or Platte County in Wyoming.
4. An attached document explaining:
 - a. Why you applied for this scholarship?
 - b. What you would do with the scholarship funds?
 - c. Provide details and an explanation as to if you are seeking employment in HR or currently employed in HR
 - d. Other pertinent information you want to include for consideration such as your employment goals, financial need, etc.
5. If you are awarded the scholarship, a commitment to provide FHRA information on how you used the money.

Amount of Scholarship

A check for $500.00 will be provided to the selected scholarship applicant. The number of scholarships may vary from year to year depending on the number of qualified applicants and the finances of FHRA. The recipient will be notified in October and the scholarship money will be provided via a mailed check to the recipient postmarked by October 31st.
